Secretary to the Govt of Mysore
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir

I have the honor to state that the Benkipur Town municipal Board in a meeting held on the 30th November 1901, resolved to levy an octroi duty of Re 1/- per maund of tobacco and 2 Annas per bundle (100) of betel leaves imported into the Town. A Copy of the resolution is herewith submitted for information.

It is reported that nearly 1500 maunds of tobacco and 4,80,000 of betel leaves are annually imported into the town. The proposed duty is estimated to bring in a revenue of Rs 2000/- annually.

I therefore recommend that

that Sanction of Government may be accorded to levy an actual duty of 1 Kupee per pound of tobacco and 2 pies on every bundle containing one hundred picked leaves that are imported into the town of Bankipur as re- solved by the Board.

I have the honor to be
